Tremper Social Studies Embraces ACT Prep

McKim

The Tremper Social Studies staff is committed to integrating ACT style reading questions into their classroom instructional practice. Staff understand that preparing students to do well on the ACT is every teachers' responsibility, not just English teachers.

In the coming months teachers will be utilizing reading passages and ACT style questions in their classes.

They welcome any and all collaboration from other departments in collecting ACT style social studies questions.

Department News....

Our favorite media consumed and recommended

The things we know and love

Staff

PBS Great Civilizations of Africa with Henry Louis Gates Jr. This is an Orth and Gallo recommendation. Extremely entertaining and covers topics throughout AP World History.

PBS Prohibition by Ken Burns. This is a Thomas pick. Burns knows how to present the facts and craft a story in a truly riveting manner.

Amazon Prime- The Man in the High Castle. This alternate history series, shows what happens when the Nazis and Japanese win WWII. This is a Zajicek and Beem pick.

BBC podcast- 50 Things That Made the Modern Economy. McKim recommends this show. Each episode is about 10 minutes long and explores how inventions have shaped society.
